Dear Norfolk County Councillors,

I have learned that the current home of the Lynnwood Arts Centre may be in peril. This is a wonderful facility which I have had the pleasure of visiting on numerous occasions.

Its location at 21 Lynnwood Avenue is perfectly suited to our downtown and adds another jewel to our lovely town. Not only does it attract people to our downtown, it keeps them coming back. I'm not surprised to know it's a National Historic Site too.

This unique building has a history and an ambiance that may well be impossible to replicate in any other location.

I'm sure there is enough creativity and goodwill between the county councillors and the Lynnwood board members to come up with a solution that will keep our beautiful Lynnwood Arts Centre right where it is.

Thank you for your consideration,

Emily Hencz-Thornton
